

His Holiness the Dalai Lama ENGAGING COMPASSION

May 19-20, 2013 YUM Center, Louisville, Kentucky

Public Talk: Sunday, May 19th “Engaging Compassion in Everyday Life”

Teaching: Monday, May 20th “Atisha’s Lamp for the Path to Enlightenment”

BUDDHIST MONK AND NUN TICKET APPLICATION FORM

A limited number of seats will be given on a first-approved, first-served basis. Please apply early.

Final deadline: February 28th.

Legal Last Name: _____ First

Name: _____

Ordination Name: _____

Gender: ___ Nationality: _____

Date of Birth: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

—

Country: _____ Social Security # or Passport

#: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Details of Ordination:

Highest Level of Ordination: _____

Ordaining

Master: _____ Tradition: _____

Date: _____

Place: _____

Current Monastery/Nunnery/Dharma Center you are associated with: _____

Contact details of Teacher who can verify your ordination:

I will need translation into: Vietnamese _____ Mongolian _____

I will need housing for the following night/s: Sunday _____ Monday _____ Tuesday _____

I would like a ticket for: Public Talk, May 19 _____ Public Teaching, May 20 _____ (one or both)

The Drepung Gomang Institute is honored to provide free seating for the Sunday Public Talk and the Monday Public Teaching (including lunch on Monday) to a limited number of Tibetan, Vietnamese and Mongolian monks and nuns. Please send your registration form early for the best chance to receive a ticket.

Please fill out an on-line form at www.dalailamalouisville.org or mail to

DGI 411 N. Hubbards Lane, Louisville, KY 40207

 For ordained, celibate monastics only.*